I went to the airport to meet the Secretary this morning. He came in on the Independence. I rode back homewith him and talked to him about the Tunisian and Union of South Africa questions at the General Assembly.

Thence to the office.

Tonight we went to a dinner at the Perkins's in honor of Dr. Bech of Luxembourg. He really is a most extraordinary man, wonderful company from a social point of view and/with great wisdom in political matters. I thanked him again for the two cases of Luxembourg wine he had sent me.
